

Birdseye back for Cup tie?

WYCOMBE Wanderers hope to have right back Paul Birdseye in tonight's (Tuesday's) team that meets Kingstonian in the third round of the Rothmans Isthmian League Cup at Loakes Park. Paul missed Saturday's 3-0 win at Woking with a groin strain but hopes to be fit.

Another player struggling with an injury is goalkeeper John Maskell, who played a major role in Saturday's success. 'Mask' has a painful back which could mean Peter Spittle taking over.

Steve Hill, Wycombe's new signing from Woking who has scored three goals in two games, is out of the running as he is cup tied. Dylan Evans or Tony Horseman will take over in the front line.

Wanderers have already recorded a league double over Kingstonian this season with a 3-1 away win and 2-0 home win both in September. Since then, however, several players have come and gone at Richmond Road.

Gone are Phil Dade (to Carshalton), Trevor Waughman (to Hampton), the Field brothers and Mick Cook. In their places manager Roy Sleaf has signed Alan Horley, a defender from Wimbledon, Mick Sorenson from Wycombe and Tom Mahon, while Danny Vincent has worked his way up from the club's junior team.

BEST RESULT

At one stage this season K's looked certain to go down into Division Two but a recent run of good results has lifted them to five places from the bottom. Best result came on Saturday when they travelled to fifth placed Tilbury and came away with a 3-1 triumph. Vincent, Barry Steer and Tony White scored the goals.

K's beat Hayes 2-0 at home in this second round of the Cup after receiving a bye in round one. Wanderers got through with a 1-0 home win over Leatherhead back in November.

With Dagenham involved in county cup football on Saturday, Enfield joined them at the top of the league with a 4-0 win over Southall — but the Daggers have a game in hand. Wanderers move to third place.

At the foot of the table Ilford look like making a bid to avoid the drop into Division Two. They beat Walthamstow 3-2 on Saturday.

Wycombe Wanderers travel to Bishop's Stortford on Saturday in the league. Their original opponents were Slough Town but the Rebels are involved in the F.A. Trophy.
